

John Mattiussi - Curriculum Vitae

John Mattiussi is a career Civil Servant with the UK Ministry of Defence, currently on secondment to the European Commission External Relations Directorate working on security policy issues.

Recent Career:

June 2003 until Present - European Commission. Working in DG RELEX on counter terrorism, non-proliferation and export/border control issues. Specialising in issues related to the export of sensitive dual-use goods. Responsible for the DG RELEX programme of export control co-operation and assistance. Also covering conventional arms export issues.

April to June 2003 – UK Representation to the EU. Working on Security Policy issues.

1998 – 2003 (On secondment to the Foreign and Commonwealth Office). First Secretary in the UK Delegation to NATO. Leading the delegation team dealing with Terrorism, Non-proliferation of WMD, Nuclear Weapons policy and Consequence Management issues.

1996 - 1998 - Ministry of Defence. Assistant Director for European Armaments Cooperation. Providing policy advice on international defence equipment programme and industry issues.

1992-1996 – British Defence Staff, Washington. Working on the UK's strategic nuclear deterrent; the Trident submarine programme.