

Working at the South Asian Strategic Stability Institute (SASSI) Islamabad as a Senior Program Coordinator, Ali Hamza received his BA Economics and Journalism from BZU and his BSc in Economics and Management from the London School of Economics. Before joining SASSI, Ali worked as a Business Consultant specializing in providing consultancy services to both Annex 1 and Annex 2 companies in regard to the commercial application of the Kyoto Protocol. He has also provided services as a supplier to various government Ministries including Water and Power for Hydro Power Plants, IPPs in Northern Areas, Solar cell solution and LED based lighting to DHA, Silicon Steel for Transformer manufacture, Blast proof Sheets etc. He has also provided operational solutions to various organizations including WiMax and PLC based solution for motorized target training. Previously he has also held the designation of Director Operations for a small-medium sized operational unit dealing with Remelted Aluminum.

Ali Hamza Khan ali.hamza@sassu.org.uk